Dear Ms. Green:

On April 7th, 1984 I placed in the new Musselman Library building on the campus of Gettysburg College a collection of Abraham Lincoln medals, the Numismatic News folder of Lincoln cents and the Lincoln medal commemorating their anniversary, a medal from the American Numismatic Society on the occasion of its 125th anniversary depicting the reduction of the Lincoln cent.

Included in the exhibit was a copy of the first draft of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, an old post card showing the house in Gettysburg where Lincoln wrote his address as well as a postcard showing the monument dedicating the spot where Lincoln delivered his speech and an old newspaper clipping of Lincoln delivering his message, an old one dollar bill and a small five dollar bill with Lincoln's portrait.

Reference was made to National Coin Week with cards in the case and with your large card entitled "Numismatics A Foundation For Friendship" was placed on the reception desk in the Library along with A.N.A. membership applications and a few of your badges.

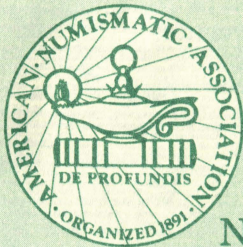

This exhibit will remain until late summer and is in conjunction with another exhibit on campus in the Gettysburg College Art Gallery in Schmucker Hall on the Lincoln Image titled The Popular Print as indicated in the enclosed brochure.

The enclosed National Coin Week medal dated 1948 was awarded to all participants that year. At that time I exhibited the silver dollars of North, Central and South America in the Western Saving Fund Societ window at Borad and Chestnut Sts. Philadelphia, Pa.

Best wishes for a successful National Coin Week.

Sincerely,

Arthur Sipe
